

Lieve Creten new chairman board of directors Quest for Growth

On 23 January 2024, the board of directors of Quest for Growth has decided, subject to approval by the FSMA, to co-opt Lieve Creten as a new director and to appoint her as chairman of the board of directors in replacement of Brigitte de Vet-Veithen, who is resigning from her mandate following her recent appointment as CEO of Materialise. Lieve Creten is an independent director and will also be a member of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of Quest for Growth succeeding Brigitte de Vet-Veithen.

In accordance with the articles of association and subject to the approval of the FSMA, the appointment of Lieve Creten will be submitted to the general meeting of 28 March 2024 and Lieve Creten will complete the mandate of Brigitte de Vet-Veithen.

The board of directors wishes to express its sincere thanks to Brigitte for her active contribution as director of Quest for Growth since 2022 and wishes her every success in the challenging position at Materialize.

The board is looking forward to working with Lieve Creten. Until 2021, Lieve Creten was a partner at Deloitte in Belgium for more than 20 years, where she developed the M&A practice for national and international investors. From 2008 to 2019 she headed the Financial Advisory activities as managing partner. During this period, she was also a member of the executive committee of Deloitte Belgium. In addition, she was part of Deloitte Financial Advisory's global executive team from 2015 to 2021 where she was responsible for Talent matters.

Currently, Lieve Creten is an independent director at Barco, CFE, Montea, Unibreda, Triginta, the Imelda Hospital of Bonheiden and Doctors without Borders. In several of the aforementioned companies, Lieve is also a member of the remuneration committee and a member or chairman of the audit committee.

Ms Creten holds a master's degree in commercial engineering from the Catholic University of Leuven (Belgium), as well as a postgraduate degree in tax sciences. She has been a certified public accountant since 1995. Lieve Creten has written several articles on M&A and has been a speaker at many events and seminars on M&A-related topics.
